

Please take notice of the following delivery conditions:

1. Your full payment has to be paid before purchase. This payment is done by the payment program 'Omnikassa' of the RABO-bank in the Netherlands. Administration time will take two working days.
2. After receipt of payment at the trader's account, the items / replicas / goods will be delivered within three working days – with the exception of holidays, trade travels, illness or other disabling circumstances on the side of the trader. Generally, there will be a time frame of about 5 working days between payment and delivery of the items / replicas / goods.
3. If the time frame of 5 working days will be surpassed, the trader will inform the customer about the reasons for the delay of the delivering of the ordered items / replicas / goods – with the exception of holidays, trade travels, sickness or other disabling circumstances of the trader.
4. Production of the items / replicas / goods takes place in small quantities or even single items. There can be minor differences between the picture on the website and the delivered item.
5. The trader keeps only a few items / replicas / goods in stock. If an item cannot be delivered from stock, it will be ordered in Third World countries. Local circumstances can prevent a timely delivery of the ordered goods.
6. When delivery (under nr. 5) may take more than a week, the trader will inform you as soon as possible.
7. When you do not agree with the waiting time involved (under nr. 5), you must inform the trader by the 'Model form for right of withdrawal'. The model can be found on this page as a PDF. ???
8. The trader will refund your payment after receipt of the complete and returned 'Model form for right of withdrawal' and the receipt of the ordered and delivered items / replicas / goods.
9. When the items / replicas / goods do not meet with your expectations, you may return them at your own expenses, together with the filled in 'Model form for right of withdrawal'.
10. The already ordered and delivered items / replicas / goods (under nr. 9) should be returned to the trader within a one month time at his indicated address.
11. In case of returned items / replicas / goods the return payment to the customer will be diminished by the trader to meet his transport expenses.
12. The risk and the burden of proof for exercising the right of withdrawal and arrival of the goods at the address of the trader in time, rests completely upon the consumer.
